

Biographical Note

Christophe Vandeweghe, graduated in Applied Economics in 2003 at the University of Leuven. He continued his studies and got an additional degree in Insurance and a Master of financial and actuarial engineering (2004-2005). He started working in the insurance industry as an actuary, at ING Insurance in Belgium in 2004.

In February 2008 Christophe started at Deloitte in Belgium, where he grew from senior consultant to director at the Enterprise Risk Services department. He was leading the Belgian actuarial practice and built up a vast experience in audit and consulting assignments at financial institutions. In 2014, he completed an MBA in financial services and insurance (Vlerick Business School/University of St Gallen/HEC Montreal).

In October 2014, Christophe joined Ageas Group. He started as the head of risk management at Continental Europe, overseeing 5 operating entities and reporting to the CFO of the region. In March 2015 he became the Chief Risk Officer, reporting to the CEO of the region. He stayed in that role until June 2018.

Since April 2016, he is also board member of Ageas in France. In February 2018 he was appointed executive board member and Chief Risk Officer (CRO) of Ageas Portugal, responsible for risk management, compliance and data protection. Since November 2019 he took up the role of CFO at Ageas Portugal, responsible for investments, ALM, accounting, tax, planning & control, business intelligence, treasury & collections, actuarial and reinsurance. As of April 2023, he also became the Chief Development Officer of Ageas Portugal.