

Biographical Note

Pedro Oliveira

Integrated Master's Degree in Civil Engineering, Specialization Area - Construction, Faculty of Science and Technology, University of Coimbra.

He started his professional career in civil construction companies where he performed functions of technical direction, management and planning of Works, assuming early on the coordination of Quality Management Systems.

He obtained his degree as Specialist Technician in Integrated Management Systems at Coimbra Business School.

Carries out his activity in the Management and Improvement Systems Unit in CTCV.

Develops work as Management Systems Auditor in this Center.

Since then his activity includes the implementation, consulting and audits to Management Systems and Production Control for Product Certification in factories in several companies in the habitat sectors and monitors the development of management improvement tools.

Allied to his basic training he is a Member of the Technical Committee CT 197 - BIM Standardization, having given support and training to manufacturers of the habitat sphere for the new reality that the challenges of BIM pose to companies.