

Biographical Note

Silvio Rubatto is been working for since 1994.

Silvio position is the SKF Group Quality director, since March 2022

He was born in Turin, Italy and he is naturalized French. Currently resides in Tours, France, with his family.

Silvio's career in SKF has a Quality and manufacturing bias and started with SKF Italy. He held various positions in the Automotive, Aerospace and general industries business units, until 201, either as Quality or Manufacturing development manager.

Group Supplier development Director till 2014, then Bearing operation Quality and EHS director (55 bearing manufacturing units), until 2017.

He developed the Supplier Technical Assistant organization in SKF. He developed and launched the APQP Plus, now called Engineer to Order (ETO), the current SKF Group Engineering and industrialization process for Safety related businesses.

He has developed the SKF improvement academy, that delivers training on Quality, EHS, Six Sigma, Project management and Key Quality owned business process, like ETO, Change management, General customer requirements.

Black belt, he is a specialist on Risk management in product and process realization and has a specific expertise in Business processes management.

His prime interest outside of work is family time.