

Biographical Note

Tamar Marvie holds the position of Quality and safety manager at the laboratories of Tel-Aviv Sourasky Medical Center - Ichilov hospital. Additionally, she serves as a professor of quality management in healthcare systems, at the Ramat-Gan academic college. Tamar obtained her BSc in industrial engineering from Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, followed by a Master's degree in business administration.

Tamar is a certified Lean Six Sigma yellow Belt expert, She is a member of the Israeli Society for Quality (ISQ) and an active member of the Israeli Society for Clinical Laboratory Sciences (ISCLS) quality forum. With 20 years of experience in project management, her responsibilities in the current position encompass ensuring the effectiveness of the Quality System, as well as planning and executing continuous improvement programs.