

Biographical Note

Coordinator General - Emirates Excellence Council
Assistant Secretary General - Arab Government Excellence Award
Director - Sheikh Khalifa Government Excellence Program
Ministry of Cabinet Affairs
Prime Minister's Office - UAE

Marwan AlZaabi has an enriching 25-year career in the field of Organizational and Governmental Excellence. Currently, he serves as the Director of the Sheikh Khalifa Government Excellence Program at the UAE Prime Minister's Office. In this role, he ensures the effective implementation of the Government Excellence Model across 40 federal government entities in the UAE, promoting innovative thinking and developing capabilities in line with excellence principles to achieve UAE's National Agenda. Additionally, he contributed to spreading knowledge about quality and excellence in 22 Arabic countries through the Arab Government Excellence Award in coordination with the Arab League.

Throughout his career, AlZaabi has held prominent leadership positions, including Vice President of Corporate Excellence at renowned organizations. He has actively contributed to fostering a culture of excellence and played a significant role in numerous achievements on both local and federal government levels in the UAE. Currently, he is leading government excellence awards in collaboration with international governments to promote excellence and enhance performance.