

Biographical Note

Fátima Cruz is currently working as coordinator of a multidisciplinary team at the Suplly Valorisation Department of the Portugal Tourism Institute, where provides support, in conjunction with the areas of tourism design and planning, to promoters, in the assessment of tourist development projects. Recently became the secretary of the Technical Commission for Standardization in Tourism - TC 144, created within the framework of the Portuguese Quality System, which is responsible for defining quality benchmarks for tourism activities in the field of services.

Degree in Law from University of Lisbon Faculty of Law and a post-graduate degree in Logistics and Science of Legislation from the Institute of Legal and Political Sciences of the same Faculty, with a large experience as consultant and legal adviser to various public entities in the areas of national defence, urban planning and tourism.