

Biographical Note

Nuno Mateus is an electrical Engineer in Control and Automation since 1995.

In 1996 started his journey as a responsible for the service technicians in BSH (Bosch Siemens Home Appliances) Lisbon area.

Beginning of 2000 started a new function as an electrical research and development project leader within Philips Power Solutions.

Since 2008 he's working in Bosch with different functions but always within Quality

- Quality Engineer till 2013;
- Team leader of product audit and metrology labs till January 2015;
- Quality manager responsible for the areas Product and Process Quality assurance.

His focus is always to grant that our products fit's and exceed the customers expectation, with this he's contributing to the Bosch Excellent Quality Trademark.